

CUSTOMER INFORMATION

Dear Participant,

Please read carefully the information and the content below.

The order

Congressline Ltd. organizes scientific conferences and other type of meetings. Within this frame various services are offered to individual participants. For these services participants pay registration and other kind of fees. You may find detailed information on the offered services on the website of the corresponding meeting where you are able to find detailed information on the following terms:

- detailed description of the services and the corresponding registration and other fees payable (registration fees, hotel deposits, hotel costs, optional tour fees, social events, pre- and post-congress tours, books and others)
- information about the payable taxes and fees
- methods of payment, terms and conditions of participation and cancellation
- all other important information regarding the meeting

From the services offered, you are able to select which is the one that corresponds to your participant status and your needs. Please be informed about the terms and conditions of cancellation, as by the application for the conference (online registration) you accept the terms and conditions of participation and cancellation.

Acceptance of the offer, payment

If you would like to take part in the conference or meeting you should register via our online registration pages. After filling in your personal details, you are able to select your personal services requested. Before payment the system will show you the summary of your charges (name and amount of the fees of your selected orders). If you choose bank card as a method of payment (except in case of AMEX cards) we redirect you to the payment surface of K&H Bank virtual credit card payment system, where the payment is directly carried out. After finishing the process on the Bank website you return to the on-line registration site. After you accepted the terms and conditions stated there You should finish and send the on-line registration to us by clicking on OK/SUBMIT button.

In case you would like to pay with AMEX card you can not use the K&H Bank virtual credit card payment system. In that case please fill the credit card data fields on the on-line registration form. From here – after accepting the terms and conditions and submitting the registration, all the data - together with AMEX card data – will be transferred into the Registration and Data processing system of Congressline Ltd through a secured, safe and confidential connection.
